Monday Evening Practices - New Look (by Elaine Farrow)

- We are trying something a little different next year to spread the Monday evening practices around to a few different towers this year.
- The first Monday in the month will be a six-bell practice and the second Monday an eight-bell practice. They will, as now, vary between elementary level and advanced methods.
- Jeremy Alford will continue to run the 10-bell methods practise using the Warnham simulator on the third Monday.
- There will be a few extra visits to East Grinstead on fourth Mondays but some of these will have a specified entry level to give the ambitious folk from all the districts a chance to practise their 12-bell method ringing. Some however will still be rounds upward, so keep your eye on the Facebook page, the website or contact Steph or myself to check which are suitable for you.
- We have booked Horsham for the three fifth Mondays and we will have a general practice, mainly on 9 or 10 bells.
- We have had a fantastic response to the Ringing Remembers campaign and look forward to welcoming newer ringers to the elementary level evenings. When you can handle a bell safely (without bumping the stay too often) and are ringing rounds and call changes at your home tower, come out and meet your fellow "improvers".

Tower Captain: Julie Richardson (01892 652008)

Lindfield Ringing Suspended

The bells will be removed in the week commencing 26th November with building works planned for completion by December 20. It is hoped that church services will resume on Sunday January 26. It is now expected that the new bells will be ringing before Easter (21st April 2019).

Correction

We are very sorry to have incorrectly reported that Martin Donner, who died unexpectedly over the summer, had rung at West Hoathly. It was in fact Hartfield.

A new brewery opens in Horsham - by Mike Cattell

A joint band from Horsham and Warnham rang a quarter peal of Grandsire Caters at St Mary's Horsham on Wednesday 29th August to celebrate the opening of the new Brewhouse & Kitchen pub in East Street. After ringing we retired to the new establishment to sample several of the 70 ales on offer and were made welcome by the manager Matt who explained that the new pub is one of a chain of "Brewpubs" that incorporate a microbrewery. As well as having a new pub in the town we now have four breweries.

The ringers entered a competition to name the new brewery "The Henry Burstow" after the noted Horsham bellringer and folk singer. With some 250 suggested names we were pleased that our suggestion made it to the final four. Despite much canvassing the chosen winner was "The Yeast Street Brewery". Subsequently the head brewery promised to consider naming a special brew "Henry Burstow". This may need to be celebrated as well!

Warnham September Outing - by Ann Lloyd

"Not in the least, Mrs Venables. Nothing would please me more than to ring bells all day and all night. I am not tired at all. I really don't need rest. I would rather ring bells." So said Lord Peter Wimsey in Dorothy L Sayers novel, The Nine Tailors. He was just about to embark on a peal of 15,840 changes of Kent Treble Bob Major in the fictional tower of Fenchurch St John in East Anglia.

On the last Sunday of September a team from St Margaret's arrived at the church of St Mary in the village of Bluntisham to practice their art of change ringing. This is in fact the tower that Fenchurch St John was based upon. Dorothy L Sayer's father had been Rector there from 1897-1917. She had grown up just across the road from the church and she had certainly investigated the mysteries of English change-ringing in order to complete this detective novel.

That weekend away took us to 14 different towers around the area of St Ives and Huntingdon. An overnight stop in St Ives meant that we were on hand to ring for two services with local bands. As with all our outings, there was great variety - quite a few rings of 6 and 8 bells, with a ring of only 4 at Covington. Jeremy Alford had organised the event superbly, making sure that the energetic days were broken up by adequate stops to sample local fare - although, unlike Lord Peter Wimsey, we were not offered hot, buttered muffins by any rector's wife!

Triumph for Sussex at Essex Trophy competition

On Saturday 8th September seven teams from around the South East of England gathered at St Mary's church Horsham to take part in the annual striking competition organised by the Essex Association of Change Ringers. The test piece was a plain course of Yorkshire Surprise Royal taking about 20 minutes to complete. The team from SCACR won the competition with an outstanding score of 88% beating the team from Surrey into second place. The judges congratulated Sussex "on an excellent piece of ringing". Over 100 bellringers attended the event.

Jeremy Quin MP for Horsham presented the trophy, with Rob Lane Master of the Sussex County Association of Change Ringers.

Northern District Outing to Central Hampshire - by Lynda Johnson (East Grinstead)

I nearly missed the Northern District Outing to central Hampshire as my husband (my car driver) fell off a ladder whilst pruning a tree the day before!

Jeremy offered me a space in his car and he organised a great outing. We visited 5 interesting towers comprising of 5 and 6 bell rings, ending with a great 6 bell ring at Winchester College. One of the College students, Harry, who also rings at East Grinstead, and his ringing captain at the college joined us and then took us on a tour of the college.

Food and company were great.

And finally... Pole dancing surprise at Horsham

You might think that Horsham had come up with a new method but Ian Smith, our ever-industrious steeple keeper, has introduced us to something much more exciting. Mega grip liquid chalk as used by pole dancers for hot and humid conditions - 100% buyer satisfaction! We are not certain how he came to know about this "cheapest on offer" product, but are not keen to see him use it anywhere other than his hands.

Ringling Remembers at St Michael and All Angels, Withyham

We were very pleased and honoured to 'ring for peace' on Remembrance Sunday at 12:30 and 19:05. Our new recruits Tilly, Cecily and Betsy (complete with Armistice 100 badges) rang so well - such an achievement for them to ring together in rounds and call changes. At 19:05 Tilly was joined by Kate, Tess and Anna (new recruits at a neighbouring tower, who join us for our Monday beginners practices). Another excellent achievement by them all. It was wonderful to be able to celebrate 'The Battle is over' with so many other bellringers across the county (and country).

Thanks to Julie Richardson

Ringling Remembers Recruits at Horsham - by Denise Herrington

I have always loved listening to the bells at St Mary's but it never occurred to me that I could do it too! I was inspired to "give it a go" after hearing about the Ringing Remembers campaign in Church and I am absolutely hooked! It is in equal measure challenging, frustrating (when the basics go wrong) and thrilling (when it all goes well). I have moved on from the feeling of blind panic in the early days when nothing went well and no longer have sore hands or blisters!

The pinnacle thus far has been deemed to be good enough to ring on Remembrance Sunday. A very special thing to do and but for the patience, perseverance and encouragement from everyone in our Tower I wouldn't have made it. There remains still a long way to go for me and I am enjoying every step of the way.

Ringling Remembers Recruit at Lower Beeding
